Lecture 1: Photosynthesis

The light reactions occur in the thylakoid membranes.

Chlorophyll absorbs light mainly in the blue and red wavelengths.

The Calvin cycle

The Calvin cycle fixes carbon dioxide into sugar.

Rubisco is the enzyme that catalyses carbon fixation.

Summary

Photosynthesis converts light energy into chemical energy.

Oxygen is released as a by-product of water splitting.